BAR HILL LITTER BUSTERS DAY, 8TH APRIL

This year our annual Litter Bust will be on Saturday 8th April. We will meet as usual at 9.30 am at the Farm House and we shall finish at the latest at 12.30. This is the 9th consecutive year we have held this village event. Let's hope for better weather than last year (and the year before!). Black bags will be provided and I suggest you wear some old gloves and welly boots.

Looking forward to seeing you all, old and young, past friends and new.

Veronica Webb

To all parents of 11 to 16 year old children

Do you know where your children go and what they are doing at weekends? Really?

Then I suggest that you take a walk to the Mall on a Friday night between 8 pm and midnight. I think you may just get quite a shock.

Here you will find 11 to 16 year old children, drunk and abusive. Not the quiet little angels that left home an hour or so before; these are acting like pure animals. Very few people enjoy walking in the Mall at night now - most find it a very threatening place to go.

Please think hard before you say " well, it's not my little John or Jane, they would not do that kind of thing ". Maybe they wouldn't at home or in front of you, but we all know what children can be like, away from our influence, when given a dare or a challenge by a group of friends.

Have you forgotten what you tried to get up to at their age? How you were in front of your parents and how you changed once you got out of sight?

These days, it is easier for them to get hold of alcohol and other drugs.

This last weekend I had the unfortunate sight of a thirteen year old girl who was so drunk she could not even stand up, and an eleven year old boy who was being sick everywhere and was on the receiving end of such verbal abuse from others, it would have made a fishwife blush.

please, is it not time to wake up to reality before one of your children ends up in hospital, or, heaven forbid, DEAD?

A concerned Resident

DYSLEXIA SUPPORT GROUP

Does your child suffer from dyslexia, or do you know someone who would appreciate an opportunity to discuss and learn more about dyslexia?

We are a group of parents and teachers who meet in St. Ives bi-monthly. We often invite special speakers or professionals who offer help and advice. If you would like more information please 'phone Sarah Adams 781464.

And some praise where it is due.....

Youth club does its bit to help others

SWAVESEY Village College Youth Club has been helping give other people a happier New Year.

An Aids Awareness Stall distributing information leaflets and ribbons, and a disco to mark World Aids Day raised £100 for the Cambridge Aids Helpline.

The youth club also held an evening of entertainment for the senior citizens of Bar Hill.

The evening included a dance demonstration, bingo and a pantomime written by Kelly Hunt, a Year 11 pupil.

The evening ended with carols played on the piano by Rebecca Scott and Rachel Jones.

(from "Cambridge Evening News")

PARISH COUNCIL NOTES

The monthly meeting of the Parish Council was held on Thursday 16th February at 7.30 pm in the Old Farmhouse.

Youth Facilities

The County Architect, having studied the proposed site at the rear of the Farmhouse for alteration to Youth facilities, did not consider that the funding available would be best spent on this building. The suggestion of using the Old Farmhouse as some form of youth provision would be explored, along with the possibility of utilising the Village Hall in some way. Liaison will be taking place between the Community Education Dept. and the Parish Council on this matter.

Precept 1995/6

A precept of £50,000 was agreed for the coming financial year. The increase would take account of extra litter collection, vandalism and tree maintenance costs.

A14 Department of Transport Report

The County Council was asking the Dept. of Transport to publish their proposals for the A14. The Clerk was asked to write in support of this request on behalf of the Parish Council.

Cycleway - Bar Hill-Dry Drayton

Following a report in the " Cambridge Evening News ", of a cycleway to be constructed between the two villages, the Clerk would be establishing further discussions with Dry Drayton Parish Council.

Under-age drinking

Concern had been expressed by several residents regarding the incidence of under-age drinking in the village. The Police were already aware of the situation and will take appropriate action.

Medvode Friendship Link

Village organizations are reminded, if they have not already done so, that the Clerk is trying to draw up a dossier of various societies/organizations, how they operate, how they started, what they do, where they meet, how many members, how much they charge, etc, etc. This dossier will then be sent to the Mayor of Medvode in Slovenia, so that the residents there will be able to get some ideas of how to run their own groups. PLEASE, if you have not given the Clerk information about your organization, make a point of doing this before the end of March - it will be very much appreciated by the people of Medvode.

BAR HILL NATURE RESERVE

Hi again!

The nights are getting lighter, Lesser Celandine is flowering and the spear-shaped leaves of the "Lords and Ladies " are appearing. There are frogs and Common Newts in my garden pond, and they will be at the reserve's ponds soon.

I spent an hour recently, clearing some of the weed from the pond to create an open area rather than let the pond become too full and clog up.

A couple of weeks ago, I went and cleared the nest boxes at the reserve, ready for the coming nesting season. The results were as follows:

20 of 27 tit-boxes were used, 1 of 7 open-fronted boxes was used by a wren. There were 3 other boxes, 2 kestrel boxes and an owl box (used by a Little Owl). 6 boxes were lost last year, due to fallen trees and outside help). A total of 5 chicks were found dead in 3 boxes.13 eggs were found in 5 boxes - some had fallen down into the nest material and been missed by the parents, and in some cases eggs had been laid, but a new nest had been laid on top of them.

The notice board will soon be going back up at the reserve (as soon as I have glued up the breakages caused by the lads who took it away in the first place and broke it) as well as a new nature reserve sign.

You will also notice a new set of " Toad Crossing " signs on the raod, each side of the reserve .... a few toads cross in this area, not as many as at Madingley, but please drive more carefully in this area. Thanks.

It's good news about the cycleway between Bar Hill and Dry Drayton: maybe now something will be done about the state of the bridleway, which is in a terrible condition. It might have helped in the past if horses had kept to one side and walkers and cyclists to the other.

If anybody knows of anywhere I can get plywood to make bird boxes for the reserve (¼" ply or more) I would be very grateful.

In Spring, the toad must cross the road
He knows there is great need,
Because inside him something is stirring
It's the season and he needs to breed.

So drive carefully if you see some
There may be a lot or a few,
Think how you'd feel if the roles were reversed
And the toad was driving, not you.

(N.J.R. '95)

See ya agen, Bye.

Nick Richardson, Warden.

WOODCRAFT FOLK

The Foxglove Elfin Group is for 6-9 year old girls and boys and meets in the school hall on Fridays 5.45 - 7.00 pm

This term the Elfins are all working together towards their health badge. We had an energetic and enjoyable keep-fit evening, led by Linda Hering. Our thanks also go to Malcolm, the Warden of Milton Country Park, who led us on a very wet night-walk, when we were fortunate enough to see and hear 2 adult foxes calling and playing together - an amazing experience.

With the lighter evenings now approaching, we look forward to spending more time outside exploring our environment.

For further information, contact Jo Grifftiths 781007. To register your child, contact Christine Welburn 782978. The other joint leader is Jenny Mace. We run as a parents' co-operative and offer equal opportunities for all.

HAPPY HOURS - BAR HILL SENIOR CITIZENS CLUB

Monthly raffle - As you all know, the proceeds from our monthly raffle are donated to a charity of your choosing. The February raffle collected nearly £35, which has been passed on to Margaret Clark for Cancer Research. Well done, everybody, for making this so worthwhile; it illustrates the kind thoughts and gestures of the illustrious "oldies" of Bar Hill. Thank you, Sid, and of course Ruby, for buying the prizes and organizing the tickets, and for keeping us mindful of the help other people need from time . Sid has drawn up a list of your suggestions for the various charities we will endeavour to support each month. Keep up the good work, folks.

1995 Holidays - As Phyllis mentioned at a recent meeting, we have had many enquiries as to whether we would be organizing a Happy Hours holiday this year and we had received details of a 5 day trip to Lyme Bay, 27th-31st March, which she told you about very briefly. We have now received the full details and they indeed appear to be most inviting. The Isle Of Wight Tours in conjunction with Haven (Lyme Bay) are offering what they term a 5 star "Cabaret Break" at a cost of £69 only; this has been reduced from the original price of £99. The emphasis is on "Cabaret" - apparently each night you can be sure of a " night out", the best cabaret entertainment, competitions, dancing right into the small hours. The holiday offer includes full board accomodation, entertainment colour TV and tea facilities in every room, and many other facilities. Both the outdoor and indoor pools are heated. There are a wide variety of indoor and outdoor sporting activities available. What more can I offer? As in former years, the coach will pick us up at Bar Hill and bring us back again.

For those who like a late holiday, how about this for choice? - pick up by coach from Bar Hill on 17th October and a visit to bonny Scotland for 5 days. Every day is a day out, visiting such interesting places as Inverary, Loch Lomond and Oban. All this is on offer at £129. This trip is being organized by the Stewardess (Anne Waldron) of the BAr Hill Social Club. Thank Heaven for these wonderful "Scotties"! It is important that you let me know as soon as possible if you are interested, as this trip will be in great demand, and to secure a place Anne will require an initial deposit of £25. Anne says that if you would like to pay the balance over several months she would be only too pleased to help you. Please let me know as soon as you can.

More Good News! - Our first coach outing for 1995 will be to Lincoln, where you will be able to visit the wonderful cathedral and have a chance to explore this lovely city. Sid has arranged this for Wednesday 19th April. Please remember to get your name down early when Sid comes round.

Carol Singing - In the February issue of the BHN I thanked those people who braved the chilly evening to turn out for our carol singing, but regretfully I omitted one of those volunteers! My sincerest apologies go to Florence (Dame Nelly Melba?) Cooper. Sorry Flo, I did not see you, lost in the crowd!

Sick report - We have had no news of anyone in hospital, which is indeed good news itself, although we understand that a few are still under the weather with the 'flu bug. It was wonderful to have Fred Brand back with us again.

Bar Hill District Guide Association

During the last month the girls have been preparing crafts, dramas, dances and musical items for a regional challenge called "Arts Alive in 95", which concludes with displays on show in May.

1st Rainbows held meetings with an international theme, playing games from other countries and learning about the Teddies, their South African counterparts, and a guest who told them about Africa.

2nd Rainbows held an evening based on the theme of Aladdin, when paper magic lanterns and coolie hats were decorated; each girl brought in something connected with the tale and told the others about it.

Some of the Brownies have completed their Journey challenges and Collectors, Writer's, Cooks & Artist badges have also been awarded. 3rd Brownies are learning the Charleston (hopefully with the aid of some "Happy Hours" ladies) and 2nd Brownies are learning songs and dances for the Gang Show on 24th & 25th March at Swavesey Village College.

The Guides celebrated Pancake Day and Thinking Day early with an evening of eating, whilst making a dragon's head, again for the Gang Show.

Thinking Day on the 22nd February is the day when the members of the Guiding Association world-wide remember each other, and is a special day in the the girls' calendar.

On the 9th March the 1st Bar Hill Brownie Pack re-opens, giving 3 packs operating in the village once more. If you would like more information about this or any other Guiding activity please give me a call.

Don't forget - the Guides are holding a Jumble Sale at the Octagon on Saturday 18th March!

1st Bar Hill Scout Group - but for how much longer?

Every week we provide Scouting activities for approximately 80+ boys in the village. You ask any of them - they'll tell you they have fun and learn lots of new things. They also go to camps and on outings, and take part in competitions. There is a very serious shortage of leaders for ALL sections, but especially Beavers and Cubs.

At the moment we need urgently AT LEAST 6 people willing to become leaders, in order to keep our units open after March.

Oh here we go again - same old line.

This is no joke - we cannot go on like this.

Many of us manage a full-time job - some of us even work shifts - and yes, we do have homes and families, in fact we're quite ordinary people, just like you! Except that we care about Scouting in our village - do YOU?

If you consider the continuation of Scouting something worth saving in this village, then please think very hard, and if you couls possibly offer us some practical help, please contact:

BAR HILL SPORTS AND SOCIAL CLUB

It is incredible to think that another Club year is coming to an end - I don't know about " Tempus fugit ", but time certainly flies!

This year's Annual General Meeting will be held on 22nd March 1995, starting at 7.30pm, so if you have anything you wish to be discussed, or something you feel needs changing - this is your chance.

Notice of the AGM and proposal forms for next year's Officers and Committee are displayed on the boiler room door next to the juke box. New faces are always welcome, so if you think you can offer time and commitment to the cause, please feel free to put your name on the appropriate list or discuss it with any of the existing committee for a real insight into the workings of the Club.

I am pleased to say that since last month's note about childrens' behaviour and their control has had a positive response, so please do not let it lapse; let's keep the Club a social venue for everyone to enjoy.

March sees both St.David's Day and St.Patrick's Day so look out for promotions (cheap drinks!) on both of those days. We have also lined up 'Aardvark', yes, 'Aardvark' on March 3rd and Jono on March 10th for your entertainment.

This year's Club "tour", following on from the successful trips to the Isle of Wight, York and Bilbao we are now off to "Bonnie Scotland". Anne has all the details behind the bar but very briefly it is a five day stay in a hotel on the edge of Loch Awe near Oban. The trip includes a coach from Bar Hill, full Scottish breakfast, three course evening meal, coach trips out, and all for the princely sum of around £130!!! So if you are interested see Anne and pay your deposit (£25 per person) quickly.

The Five Nations Rugby continues to progress, nicely if you're English! So why not join us for final games on March 18th when perhaps Grand Slams, Triple Crowns and Wooden Spoons will be decided.

Our Quiz nights return on the last Thursday of each month, so if you fancy an opportunity to exercise the brain cells why not join us?

COLTS FOOTBALL

Well, another month has passed us by with very little action on the field, due to waterlogged pitches. We are now considering training our synchronised swimming, as it would appear to be more appropriate to the current conditions!

Of the few games played recently, the most enthusiastically received result was that of our Under 11's, who on 12th February recorded their first league win of the season by beating Fulbourn 2-1. Well done to those lads, and particularly the goal-scorers, Danny Wright and James Taylor.

Off the field, we are considering joining forces with some other village organizations to build changing rooms, storage and Youth facilities. So that we can apply for grants, etc., we are seeking the help of anyone within the village who could design a suitable building. If you are that person, please call Jim Charlwood, our Treasurer.

The jumble sale held on 4th February in the school raised some much needed cash for the Colts. Thank you to all who contributed jumble and / or attended the event. Our next fundraising occurs with the All Fools Disco on 1st April, again in the school. Tickets cost £5 and for this low low price you will get a Fish and Chip Supper supplied. The Backtrack Disco will supply the music. Tickets can be obtained from Colts committee members, Managers, etc.

LEGION

The Royal British Legion will celebrate its 75th birthday next year, but its work has not ended - indeed it is increasing. It collects money through the Poppy Appeal and spends that money to further the welfare of ex-service people. Requests for help from World War II and post-war ex-service people are increasing - the rise in the number of cases handled by the Legion's pension department has increased from 17,500 in 1987 to well over 56,000 today. To meet the challenges faced, the Legion has begun a new publicity campaign and has adopted the new logo shown above. The Poppy remains as a central symbol, as unchanged as the Legion's core values, and is a symbol of the Legion's determination to adapt in order to continue with its historic task.

On Wednesday 8th March our group will hold its Annual Sausage supper at Cottenham RBL, followed by bingo. This is always very popular and regularly draws a "full house".

Our Branch meeting will be on Thursday 9th March at 7.30 pm in the Farmhouse. Last year the Ely RBL organized a concert by the Joe Loss Orchestra. This was a complete sell-out so by popular demand the Orchestra will again be at the Maltings on Friday 10th March. Our first dance for 1995 will be in the school on 18th March. Tickets can be obtained from Doreen Patrick 782136 or Ann Duce 781677.
